

Strategic Thinking Interview Guide

Purpose of the Interview Guide:

This Interview Guide is designed to assist in the behavioral interview process. It provides specific questions and probes for the behaviors of the competency. In addition, positive and negative behavioral indicators are listed that will help evaluate the candidate's responses. While the process described below is designed for multiple interviewers seeing each candidate, it can be completed with only one interviewer.

Prior to the interview:

- Review the candidate's resume.
- Review the assigned the competency(s) and the behaviors that comprise each competency.
- Select the specific questions you feel comfortable asking each candidate. Note: Not all the questions need to be used – select at least two questions.

During the interview:

- Greet the candidate and spend a few minutes building rapport; talk about areas the candidate is interested in.
- Transition into the formal interview.
- Ask the selected questions and use follow-up probes to get complete examples of the:
 - Situation that the candidate encountered;
 - Actions that the candidate took;
 - Results or outcome of the actions taken.
- Give the candidate time to think about past examples/experiences when answering the questions.
- Ideally get at least 2-3 examples for each question.
- Use this guide to take notes and evaluate the candidate.

Following the interview:

- Check off appropriate behavioral indicators and summarize key observations and notes. Rate the candidate on each assigned competencies in the space provided at the bottom of each page.
- Note any observations for competencies not assigned and be prepared to discuss.
- After completing, interviewers should meet to discuss and reach consensus on the final ratings for each candidate and complete the Candidate Interview Summary.
- Make the hiring decision.
